AI Advisory

Independent AI advice. No product to sell.

For boards, executive teams and public bodies. We help you write the rules for AI in your organisation, choose vendors and tools on your terms, and set a roadmap your people can deliver. Independent, in Arabic, and on record.

For	Starts with	Where	Proposal
Boards, executive teams, ministries	One conversation, then a scoping note	Your offices or our campus	Scope and price within a week

What we advise on

01 Rules for AI at work: what staff may use, what data may never leave the building, and who signs off

02 Vendor and tool selection: reading the pitch, testing the claims, and a contract that does not lock you in

03 An AI roadmap for the next twelve months, with owners, budget and the first three projects

04 A second opinion before a decision is announced

How an engagement runs

1. A conversation
   Forty minutes with a director on what you are deciding and why now.
2. A scoping note
   Within a week: what we would do, who from your side is needed, and the price.
3. The work
   Workshops with your leadership, review of what you already have, written recommendations.
4. On record
   A report your board can read, and a follow-up ninety days later.
